CITY SOCIETY NEWS.

ITEMS OF INTEREST IN GENERAL PERTAINING TO SOCIETY.

Two Weddings and Two Receptions are all that we have to present to our Readers this week. Politics no doubt Prevented Much Gossip.

There is very little of importance to be noted in this week's society column, due, no doubt, to everything giving way to the election.

On Tuesday evening last Baldwin T.

McGraw, of the Superior Drill works, and Miss Lizzie Young, of Troy, were married at the residence of the bride's parents in the above city. The wedding was a quiet but an elegant affair, only the near relatives of both being present. Mr. and Mrs. McGraw were the recipients of many elegant presents.

Thursday evening quite a large reception was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs.

Baldwin McGraw at the residence of the groom's father. About fifty of their friends were present and a very enjoyable time was spent. Music and dancing was the order of the evening for the younger set of guests.

The young couple will go to house-keeping on Kiser street.

Thursday afternoon, from twelve to three,

Miss Nora White gave a reception in honor of the Misses Bart, of Detroit. The guests of Miss Bart were the Misses Bart, of Detroit.

The affair was one of the most elegant ever given in this city. The house was filled with choice cut flowers. Right rendered sweet music for the occasion, and a delightful time was enjoyed by all present, among whom were Mrs. Ludlow, Mrs. C. B.

Fisher, Mrs. B. H. Warder, Mrs. Runnels, Mrs. Laura Black, Mrs. Andrew Black, Mrs.

H. S. Hank, Mrs. Bert Gager, Mrs. Hannah

Goode, Mrs. Saml Bowman, Mrs. A. S. Bushnell, Mrs. Dr. Sells, Mrs. T. S. McGraw, Mrs.

Frank Buchwalter, Mrs. Dr. Van Norman,

Mrs. J. H. Thomas, Mrs. Harry Rabbits,

Mrs. Gus Foss, Mrs. Wm. Foss and Mrs. Joe

Cartmell.

Miss Chance, of Urbana, was in the city on Thursday.

Miss Blase, of Toledo, attended the Hedges-

Seitz wedding Thursday.

Miss Munger, of Columbus, spent several days of last week in the city.

Mr. Frank Hultman, of Dayton, spent a couple of days last week in town.

Miss Julia Harlan, of Cincinnati, is the guest of Mrs. N. F. Stone, of East High street.

Mr. Tom Simpson came down from Detroit last week to act as "best man" for Mr. Mott Hedges.

Miss Helen Rogers, of Dayton, will be the guest of Mrs. Dr. Rodgers, North Limestone street, this week.

Miss Alice Foley and Miss Anna Steele enjoyed the past week in town, the guests of Mrs. Frank Webb.

Mayor Charles Adams, of the classic village of Yellow Springs, mingled pleasure with business in our city yesterday.

Miss Berdie Page, who has been visiting Mrs. W. M. Plattenberg the past week, left for her home, in Columbus, Saturday.

Saml Dodd, the gentlemanly agent of the Pan Handle at South Charleston, came over last night to get the correct election returns.

Mr. Russell Seeds left Saturday for Chicago.

Mr. Seeds expected to sail this week for Europe, but owing to some very important business is prevented from going for the present.

Hon. John A. Shank, of Cincinnati, is in the city on a business and pleasure trip. He confirms the reports we have from Hamilton county, as to the true inwardness of matters political.

The Logansport, Indiana, Critic gives a detailed account of the brilliant wedding of Mr. John M. Johnson and Miss Emma Rie-nald, a sister of Mrs. T. M. Gugenheim, of this city. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, at noon on Thursday last, and about fifty guests were present. The solemn ceremony of the Episcop-

A CASE THAT NEEDS ATTENTION.

A Child in Possession of Its Inhuman

Mother, Keeper of a House of Ill-Fame.

About nine o'clock last night Chief Walker,

Marshal Hughes and Officers Mast, Norton and Delacy made a raid on the house of ill-fame kept by Mrs. Rilla Tucker, on Factory street, north of North street. Two men, named W. Daly and George Crothers and Mrs. Tucker were arrested and taken to the station house in the patrol wagon, where they were locked up, the former on the charge of bothering about a house of ill-fame and the latter for keeping a house of ill-fame.

Mrs. Tucker had a little baby in her arms, and it, of course, had to be taken to the station house with its mother. When she was placed under arrest she vented her anger on the poor little innocent babe by cruelly beating it until stopped by the officers. Sometimes ago her husband sued for divorce and the custody of the child, but failed to get either. Since that time he has not been living with her, and last night when arrested she wanted the officers to go to an East End saloonkeeper and have him put up bail for her appearance.

It is a shame and disgrace on the good name of Springfield that such a woman should be allowed to keep in her possession an innocent little babe, to be brought up under the care of such a mother and in the society of such men and women as she associates with. Some steps should be taken immediately by the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals and children, to take the child away from its inhuman mother, and place it where it will be brought up in the right way. A case of this kind came up a couple of years ago, and through the efforts of this paper, the child was taken away from its mother.

TOTAL DEPRIVITY

Exhibited Again by the Notorious Julia

Ringgold White Being Arrested.

The notorious Julia Ringgold, one of the many "Hill" toughs, got on the outside of too much bad whiskey last night, and proceeded to make Rome howl, as it were. Officer Wasky heard the racket and placed the famous Julia under arrest. She is a powerful woman and resists with the tenacity of a tiger. She tore around at a lively rate, and the officer was compelled to throw her down and put the "twist" on her wrist.

In the meantime she struck the officer, or rather the officer's club swung round and struck him under the right eye, and he will wear it in a sling for several days. The wagon was called and then another tussle took place. In attempting to resist the officers Julia tried to play her old trick of divesting herself of all clothing. In this she succeeded admirably, but Officer Foster, nothing daunted, threw her down in the bottom of the wagon, and held her until the station house was reached. On the way she begged to be allowed to sit up, reminding the officer that she should not mistreat her as she was a woman. She certainly does not deserve to be classified as a woman, but more as a depraved brute of the female persuasion. Such an exhibition of total depravity merits nothing but the heaviest penalty of the law that can be inflicted, and it is a great pity, and indeed a shame, that such a person cannot be confined for all time, and shut off entirely from the rest of humankind. Her presence any where would corrupt even the most indecent of the human race.

The Bee Line (C. C. &amp; L. Ry.) have been doing a land office business for the last week, having sold tickets to the number of over 60 to New York, Boston, Ft. Wayne, Indianapolis,

Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Mississippi,

Missouri, Kansas, Texas and California. Their train reaching their sleeping cars are very popular, and justly so, as passengers can secure all the comforts of a sleeping car without the expense. These cars leave Springfield every day except Sunday at 3:45 p. m., and run through to St. Louis without change, connecting in Union depot with their cars for

NEATLY NARRIED.

A Watch Stolen at Newark R covered in this City.

On Thursday morning Chief of Police

Walker received a card offering a reward of $25 for the recovery of a watch stolen from

B. B. Loar, of that place, Oct. 9. The watch was minutely described as having in cure gold case, handsomely engraved and having a double push. It was out of repair and the belief was that the thief would take it to a jeweler for repair, which proved to be the case. Chief Walker took the description to each of the jewelers in the city and requested them to keep a lookout for the watch.

Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock a stranger stepped into Hoffman &amp; Co's, jewelers, on South Limestone street, and asked the price on several gold watches, and finally inquired what it would cost to change a key-wind to a stem-winder. Mr. Hoffman said he could not tell until he saw the watch, which the stranger finally produced. In examining it, the quality of the case, the engraving, and especially the rare double push attracted Mr.

Hoffman's attention, and he immediately thought of the stolen watch. Calling a clerk to attend the stranger, he took the watch back in the rear of the store and compared it with the description left by the thief.

He was soon satisfied that he had the stolen watch, and leaving it with his
